Letter from Judge Henry.

WALHOLAHUA CANON,
YARUMBI, Sept. 18th, 1874.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—Our party, consisting of Lawson, Boulware, Hunt and myself are encamped in Walholahua Canon—about forty-five miles north from the Quito Quicksilver mine.

Our camp is in the midst of the wildest and most picturesque country I have ever seen—the mountains somewhat resembling the celebrated Black Hills and commanding a most sublime view of lakes, rivers and valleys in the distance to the south and west. The numerous mineral springs in this canon and the surrounding unexplored wilderness form the fountain-head of Lost River, a stream somewhat larger than Cache Creek, and much more romantic in the beauty of its many falls and cascades, as well as the thrilling revelations of its traditional history.

Its sparkling waters abound with beautiful and delicious fish, while its banks are lined with wild flowers that would adorn the garden of a fastidious queen. Wild game is abundant.

Even now, while I write, a flock of deer, in pairs, are quickly feeding on the hill side, not more than half-a-mile away. Lawson has just returned to camp after one of the horses to pack in another deer. Our present hunting ground, I think is the finest I have ever seen. The game here has probably been undisturbed for a long period, as we have discovered no tracks of white men in this region. It is fourteen miles to the nearest dwelling, where an old mountaineer resides, with whom we left our wagon yesterday morning, the mountains being too rugged and precipitous to admit of the transportation of vehicles. We were obliged to pack our goods upon himself, and sufficient for covering at night, and leave the tent and other heavy articles behind. We have had splendid success thus far. Since we left Woodland at 10 o'clock, we have secured a few dozen quail, squirrels and rabbits and a large wildcat. The greater part of this game we captured before arriving at our present hunting ground. Yesterday, soon after our arrival here, one of the party announced the discovery of a bee-tree. "We went for it," and after two hours' hard work we have killed five deer, one fox, and several dozen quail, squirrels and rabbits and a large wildcat. The greater

A Mineralogical Miracle—A Gold Mountain.

A quartz mountain in Holcomb valley is a puzzle even to the experts.

And no wonder! A mountain of gold-bearing quartz, is, we believe, a sort of geological anomaly; at least we have never heard nor read of a similar discovery. At first we were incredulous in receiving, as true, the statement made of the vast extent and richness of these mountain mines, but now we have excellent authority—that of Captain Frink, who has just returned from a careful inspection of the famous mountain—believing that the first reports made relative to their extent and richness, were rather underrated than otherwise. This gold mountain is situated in Holcomb valley, twelve miles from Bear Lake, above the level of which it rises 300 feet. Nine claims are already located, each claim being 1,500 feet in length, 400 feet in width, and 35 feet high above the level of the table land. But, first, we should have said that the crown of the mountain is a mass of gold-bearing rock, 35 feet high and 100 feet wide, and somewhere about two miles in length. At the base of this line, that is, 35 feet below the top, several openings have been made in the hill. From rock yielded from three openings, each three hundred yards apart, the assays yielded $40 per ton. Captain Frink says that two-thirds of the immense mass of rock above the level of the water, is the lowest figure $15 per ton. The conformation of the surrounding country helps to explain the richness of the mountain, as the latter is bounded on both north and south by placers which have been long worked.

The Carter claim is located near the center of the mountain. Rich as it is, the assays and concrete appearance of the ore. A large force of workmen are at present engaged on three tunnels, and the developments are highly satisfactory. Operations are conducted by George Gleason, a rich and intelligent miner, who has had long and much experience in Nevada and Arizona quartz mines. We believe that the Carter quartz mountain will eclipse any other discovery ever made on this coast, or any other.

Now, as Captain Frink is conceded even by experts to be a first-class mineral autocrat, we have no hesitation in saying that we receive his opinion with implicit confidence.

Hitherto we have doubted, but now we can doubt no longer. We are confident that the Carter mountain is an immense mass of rich quartz; and we are also confident that the San Francisco stock sharps are aware of the fact, for they are making every effort to "beat" the stock market.

lies in the heart of a magnificent forest; access is easy, water is abundant, and a splendid grassy country surrounds it on all sides. A new tunnel has been already located half-way between the lake and the mine, on a fine site. Quite a village has sprung up already; it contains a butcher-shop, two boarding-houses, and as a number of coarse, two saloons. If these mines develop at all like they promise, a large mining town will rapidly spring up in Holcomb—

FALL RIVER (Mass.) Sept. 10th.
About 7 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in Granite Mill No. 1, on Twelfth and Bedford streets, and owing to a misunderstanding with regard to the location, the firemen did not reach the scene until the flames had made fearful headway, and the entire department was consumed. As near as can be learned under the present excitement, the fire originated in the lower or fourth story. An attempt was made to extinguish the flames by means of water, and the door leading to the pool-room, which opens south on the lower stair-case, was closed to keep back the employees and prevent a panic. But when the fire gained such head

EXTENSIVE FIRE AT DAVISVILLE.
 A serious conflagration occurred at Davisville on Monday morning last by which nine buildings were entirely destroyed. As near as we have been able to ascertain, the fire commenced in the store opposite Madden's Hotel and communicated to the three stores adjoining on the south, then took in course a timber dwelling, a blacksmith shop, carpenter shop, a chicken house and two or three minor structures—in all nine buildings. The first building belonged to Mrs. Cunningham, but we have not learned the names of the other owners. The loss of buildings and contents will probably reach ten thousand dollars, mostly uninsured. There is not much doubt but that the fire was the work of an incendiary. Fire had been discovered twice in the same locality within two weeks but in time to extinguish it. It was with great difficulty that the Madden Hotel and other buildings were saved. There was no fire department, but everybody worked with will and the consequence is that a large amount of property was saved that might otherwise have been destroyed. The burnt district makes quite a gap on the east side of Main street.

COLEMAN SISTERS.—This trio of young ladies have appeared in this place before and gave entire satisfaction to large audiences. They also gave an entertainment in Washington Hall last evening, which was greeted and well rendered. Mr. Coleman and his three daughters make a very complete little troupe for their style of entertainment, and wherever they go they are highly spoken of. This (Friday) evening they appear again in Washington Hall where they will doubtless be greeted by a large audience who they will be sure to please. Go and see them.

DISTRICT COURT—SEPT. TERM.
RAMAGE, J.—Ab-Ping, tried for murder, was found guilty in the second degree; to appear Sept. 25th for sentence.

Dresbach vs. McClary.—Judgment confessed.

Powers vs. Jackson.—J. B. Nixon substituted as Defendant's Attorney, Johnson and De L. with ray.

Troutwell vs. Jackson.—Johnson and De Witt withdrawn from the case.

Morris vs. McMahon.—Still on trial.

Pfeifer vs. Mehring.—Dismissed.

GOOD HARDWARE HOUSE.—Mr. H. B. Wood, of the late firm of Gray & Wood, has purchased the hardware stock of Messrs. Stinall & Son and will continue the business at the old stand, one door west of Freeman's corner. Mr. Wood thoroughly understands the hardware business, having been engaged in it in this place for several years, and we trust our readers will patronize him. We say, deal with the man who advertises. They are the most liberal, and as a rule will do best by their customers.

HELD TO ANSWER.—A man named Lafayette Hill was arrested at Davisville a few days since by Constable McLaughlin charged with rape. He was brought to the county jail for safe keeping till Monday when he was taken back by the Sheriff and examined before Justice O'Neal, who fixed his bonds at $1,000 to appear before the grand jury. He succeeded in obtaining the sureties and was discharged.

WRITING SCHOOL.—We call attention to the school of Prof. Dreiss, who has made arrangements for opening a school in Penmanship to the public in the room next door east of Green's jewelry store. The Professor ranks A. No. 1 in his profession and is one of the most successful teachers that ever visited this town.

BOOKS AND STATIONERY.—Those who are about procuring new books and stationery for the new term, either at the College or Public Schools, are referred to the full assortment of all the kinds used kept by G. W. Greene, in College block, which he is selling just as low as they can be afforded.

SHAWL FOUND.—A lady's square striped shawl picked up in town the day of the circus has been left at this office for the owner, who can have the same by describing it and paying for it this notice.

SCHOOL BOOKS.—At Simpson's Drug Store may be found all the different kinds of books needed for college and public schools. Also all kinds of stationery. Prices moderate.

EPISCOPAL.—There will be Episcopal Service at the Methodist Church next Sunday, Sept. 27th, at half past 12 P. M. All are cordially invited to attend.

Letter from Cacheville.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

CACHEVILLE, Sept. 22, 1874.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—It is not often that we can unite our voices in such universal gratification of our anticipations as we can this year. The harvest with its plentiful store has brought an abundance for all. The farmer has his share; the merchant his portion, and the laborer his; and rest assured the speculator is well supplied, though perhaps not satisfied. Nature has indeed smiled upon her sons. But when we consider the fact that what is dull at $1.45 we feel that there has been a mistake somewhere; and I suppose we must wait until the mistake is discovered before a correction can be made.

Early in the spring we were going to have a narrow gauge and Iron.—Free all the Beecher-Tilton affair.—Oh the court!—This railroad business reminds one very forcibly of the perplexed Dutchman.—The more I learn the less I find out.

Cacheville at present presents a quiet business appearance. The political atmosphere is quiet, so far as governmental politics are concerned. No one seems to care whether Grant is re-elected President or not. But there seems to be a strife among contending factions as to who shall govern the town. If the ring which assumes the management of our town should break, what an exposition there would be! Some of our "fathers" would not doubt be glad to hide their visages from the public.

Last Saturday an accident happened which though fortunately not serious, might have been a sad affair. Mrs. Smith, living about two miles north-west of here, was driving home from Woodland, having with her two small children, when she and one of the little ones were thrown out. The horses becoming frightened ran on through town with the other child, and about half a mile toward home, before they were stopped. The child was rescued, and it was found that none of them had received serious injury.

At this time many are availing themselves of the privilege of recreation in the mountains. Several have returned from hunting and report game plentiful. Of course this excites others, and among them, CYRIL.

BASE BALL.—The young men have organized a club, for playing this popular and healthful game, and expect to challenge some of the Sacramento clubs for a match game. Practice is now in order, and proficiency is what the boys are working for. Any one desirous of becoming a member may do so at the regular meeting next Saturday, at the College, at 10 A. M.

ACCIDENT.—Peter Hummel was thrown from a buggy a few days since by the horse suddenly shying, and received severe cuts and bruises on the face and head. One eye was entirely closed for a while. He is now improving and will soon be all right again.

A GOOD TIME.—The Society of Free Thought will give another of their popular entertainments at Central Hall on Wednesday evening next. Dancing to continue till 10 o'clock. Music by Wood & Simpson. Tickets $1.00. They expect to have a jolly good time.

SOLD OUT AND BOUGHT IN.—Mr. L. B. Ruggles has sold out his interest in the lumber business in this place to Mr. D. Frazer, who is well known to our citizens. The firm will hereafter be Davis & Frazer.

POULTRY.—Our townsmen in Dr. W. J. Prather has the largest variety and several of the best specimens of poultry on exhibition at the State Fair. We think the Doctor has beaten all competitors.

LEFT US.—C. Crocker, late leader of the Woodland Brass Band, we learn from the Chronicle has taken up his quarters in Vallejo, where he is following his profession of Band teaching.

BAPTIST PREACHING.—The Baptists this place will have preaching in Tompkins' Hall, on Saturday, (tomorrow) at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M., and on Sunday at 11 A. M. and 2 P. M.

UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE, we will sell the best brands of calico 14 yards for $1.00. Such as Sprague, Merrimack and even those with trimming borders. A. NICKELSBURG.

GOOD OPPORTUNITY.—Anyone in want of harness is referred to the advertisement of Mr. T. M. Prior, who gives prices in plain figures and will perform all his promises.

The Cant of Impostors.

It is so obvious that physical and constitutional vigor is the best defense against disease, that even the vendors of drastic purgatives advertise them as tonics, stomachics and invigorants. In the hope of enlisting the confidence of the public in the devastating and pernicious poisons. It is amusing to note how these impostors imitate and copy the language in which the medicinal properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are described. Although the effect of their rasping evacuates is to destroy the tone of the digestive organs and the bowels, and to rob the system of its vital strength, they are unscrupulously recommended to the weak and prostrate victims of disease as stimulants! It is time this humbug was a very successful one. It is time, thanks to the mature common sense of the American people, was stigmatized as it deserves. Such mischievous falsehoods should be exposed for what they are. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, be it distinctly understood, is a stimulant. It is a powerful tonic, and that is the vehicle which diffuses its wonderful sanitary principles through every part of the system. The tonic, alternative and purgative ingredients of the Bitters would be comparatively inert if they were not, so to speak, carried to the localities where they are required by a stimulant agent. The cast which protest against the use of a pure alcoholic fluid, when employed as a means of giving full effect to the medicinal extracts of the Bitters, is the sense of calisthenics. Every intelligent physician as characterized by such men as who are gripped, convulsed and debilitated by the nauseous and disgusting noxious of the parties who put it forth, soon find to their sorrow that it is a delusion and a snare. Hostetter's Bitters, the great sanitary stimulant of the age, is in the truest sense of the words, a wholesome, vitalizing, renovating preparation.

So thoroughly have the newspapers been demoralized by the scandal that we were not surprised to see it announced that Samuel J. Tilton was the most prominent candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in New York. —Boston Post.
